

Case Study - Homebase Showrooms

As part of the new Homebase development plan, ABISS was asked to support one of the largest German kitchen manufacturers in installing their kitchens within some of the Homebase stores. ABISS undertook this work, completing all the stores in the initial phase within 1 day per store before being awarded a second phase.

